OWENS MAKES FIRST MOVE IN RE-ELECTION CAMPAIGN

County Judge Owens fired the first shot in his campaign for re-election yesterday by removing all election judges and clerks in the First Ward.

Owens' reasons are obvious. It is common talk that Aldermeh Kenna and Coughlin will not support Owens this fall. So Owens, who is boss of the election machinery in Cook county, evidently intends that the First Ward polling places will be manned this fall by his friends.

Naturally, the newspaper bosses are standing with Owens and against Kenna and Coughlin.

RIVAL OF GEN. HUERTA, WHO DISAPPEARED

Pedro Lascourain, a wealthy real estate man and minister of foreign affairs in the Madero cabinet, has vanished and, it is feared, may have been assassinated because of his political activity. He hoped to become Huerta's successor.

MOB HANGS NEGRO—CLAIM HE ASSAULTED LITTLE GIRL

Shreveport, La., May 13.—Battering down the jail door, a mob took Robert Hamilton, a negro, out of his cell and hanged him from a pole in the courthouse square here today. The sheriff has appealed to Gov. Hall for troops. The crowd dispersed and the city is now quiet. Hamilton was suspected of having criminally assaulted a 7-year-old orphan girl in the rest room of a moving picture theater. The authorities withheld the child's name.

The little girl died from her injuries at about the time the negro was hanged.

Body found in lake at foot of Grand av. May be that of William Ullrich, crib disaster victim.
